

Regulations for the stay of hotel guests with animals

1. The condition for admitting an animal to the Akwawit space is to notify the Guest of the arrival with the animal at the time of booking.
2. The fee for the stay of an animal is 50 PLN per day, regardless of its size.
3. The hotel has a limited number of rooms that can accommodate pets and may refuse accommodation if the pool of rooms is exhausted.
4. Hotel Akwawit only accepts pets on its premises.
5. Akwawit Hotel has the right to refuse to accommodate dogs deemed to be aggressive breeds (according to the Regulation of the Minister of Internal Affairs and Administration of 28 April 2003 on the list of dog breeds deemed to be aggressive) or dogs of the type of such breeds as well as reptiles, arachnids and felines deemed to be wild cats.
6. For the safety of our guests and other animals on the hotel premises, we may ask guests whose animals show aggression towards other animals or people to leave the hotel.
7. In the event of failure to report a stay with an animal, Hotel Akwawit may refuse to accommodate guests and refund the deposit.
8. The owner of the animal is obliged to have documents confirming the animal's state of health in the form of a health booklet with current vaccinations and deworming certificate.
9. In the interest of safety, the animal should have a leash, collar, muzzle and cage, depending on the species of animal.
10. Animals are allowed in the hotel in designated areas - rooms, corridors, lobbies, common areas.
11. The owner of the animal is responsible for its behaviour in the shared spaces and should respect the wishes of other guests if their pet shows excitement or other behaviour that may disturb the guests of the Akwawit Hotel
12. The animal staying in the hotel premises must not disturb other guests staying on the premises. Please ensure that your pet does not make noise, particularly at night.
13. In the event of repeated complaints from other Guests, we reserve the right to remove the animal from the premises at the owner's expense.
14. Should the Hotel staff have a reasonable suspicion that an animal left in the room is disturbing other guests, damaging Hotel property or may cause a situation of danger to itself or other guests, the Hotel Management will attempt to contact the owner in order to resolve the problem. If contact is not possible, the Hotel reserves the right for the staff to enter the guest's room also with the possible assistance of the relevant services and remove the animal from the Hotel.
15. The owner of the pet will be responsible for all costs incurred as a result of the above actions.
16. The owner is responsible for the cleanliness after the pet - in the room, in public areas as well as in the area surrounding the hotel. Please clean up after your pet.

17. Dogs are requested not to be allowed on beds and sofas.
18. Dog owners are obliged to clean up any waste left by dogs on the grounds and in the surroundings of the hotel.
19. Cat owners must have a litter tray with sand and empty it into a plastic bag, which they will then dispose of in a container indicated by a hotel employee.
20. Cleaning of the room in which the animal is staying shall only take place when the owner is present.
21. The owner of the animal is responsible for any damage and pollution caused by their animal and is obliged to pay for any damage. The valuation of damages is the responsibility of the Hotel Management
22. The animal must remain under supervision throughout its stay on the hotel premises. Dogs must be walked on a leash and muzzled, under the supervision of the owner or an authorised person.
